LEEWAY.

Dedication

To The Faculty:

"WHO have done more than train the minds of the students; who have bent their energies toward the realization of a greater and better Lee High School, and by their example have influenced the characters of those students with whom they have been associated; the Class of Nineteen Twenty-eight respectfully dedicates this copy of THE LEEWAY."

LEEWAY

Foreword

It is with a great deal of pride and some regret that the Staff presents this, THE LEEWAY of 1928. We are proud of it because this volume is the culmination of a glorious and illustrious year in Lee High history; our regret is due to the fact that the curtain is falling over our high school career, the first act in the drama of life.

We hope that these few pages will serve as a reminder of happy days to those who pass out of these portals forever and be an impetus to faltering purpose when the path of life becomes rough.

We have tried to picture the activities and life of the school in such a way as to cause a pleasant glow of pride in the hearts of all those connected with the institution, and to stimulate still greater spirit and fellowship in Lee High.

Onward, Lee High

MISS M. VIRGINIA POTTS

Onward, Lee High, Onward, Lee High,
Plunge right into the fray,
Hit that line, ev'ry time,
Vic'try we're sure to win today, rah, rah—rah, rah, rah;
Show your "pep" boys,
Keep your "rep," boys.
One goal will make them yield—
We will keep old Lee High on the top,
Back them right down the field.

ALL ALONG THE LINE—

Onward, Lee High, Onward Lee High,
Plunge right into the fray,
Hit that line, ev'ry time,
Vic'try we're sure to win today, rah, rah—rah, rah, rah;
Show your "pep," boys,
Keep your "rep," boys,

Class Poem

GEORGE M. COCHRAN

Let us muse a while in the gloaming
Of the round, red, setting sun
Of our high school days so short, so bright
That we regret are done.

The scenes of all our failures,
From Freshman to Senior year,
The witness of our triumphs bold,
That we did hold so dear.

We sigh as we remember
The happy times we had,
As along the path of knowledge hard,
Each sought to be a "grad."

We are leaving now the classrooms,
The library and the halls,
The well-loved and familiar haunts
That memory dear recalls.

Now comes the time upon us
When the great class of 'twenty-eight
Must say goodbye to schoolmates fond
And go forth to meet its fate.

And thus we greet our honored school
As a staunch and tested friend,
And say, "Farewell, Lee High, farewell,
Our race is at an end."

When many, many years have passed,
And new faces adorn Lee High,
And all of the friends that we knew so well,
Have bid their school goodbye :
Even then will records and annals dark
Bear out our proud statement, and bold,
That the greatest class of the glorious past
Was the class of the orchid and gold.

So we'll drink a toast to old Lee High,
(Oh, may its fame never abate)
And we'll give three loud and ringing cheers
For the class of 'twenty-eight.
The greatest name on the golden page
Of Lee High's Hall of Fame.
The mightiest class, of the present or past
To carve its illustrious name.

FRANCIS WHITMORE LINEWEAVER

"FATS"

President Senior Class '27-'28; President Athletic Association '27-'28; Vice-President Hi-Y '27-'28; Business Manager Record '27-'28; Captain Basketball '27-'28; Cast "Rose Tokio"; Delegate Southern Interscholastic Press Conference '28; President Junior Class '26-'27; Vice-President Hi-Y '26-'27; Vice-President Phoenix '26-'27; Manager Basketball '26-'27; Subscription Manager Record '26-'27; Runnel's "Gold Football Award" '26—"Best in Football"; Cast "Rosetime" '27; Cast Flapper Grandmother '26; Vice-President Phoenix '24-'25; Member State Hi-Y Club '26, '27-'28; Hi-Y Club '24, '25-'26, '27-'28; General Athletic Association '25-'26; Phoenix Literary Society; Monogram Club '26, '27-'28; Honorary Member Athletic Association '27-'28; "S" in Football '24-'25, '26-'27; "S" in Basketball '25-'26, '27-'28; "S" in Baseball '26-'28

"Fats" has the true school spirit which every Lee High man ought to have. He has the fighting spirit, and is a good sport with it all, as shown by his athletic record. There is no activity in the high school which "Fats" does not put his whole heart into. We are proud to say that he is one of the most popular boys at school. Whatever "Fats" says has a great influence over the students and what he says is always for the good of the school.

As an athlete "Fats" is unexcelled. The best spirit of the '26 football team won him the Runnels Gold Football. He has never been known to play a game unfairly.

We know that "Fats" will be as true to Hampden-Sidney as he is to a certain person in the same vicinity. We hope that his familiar "ha," "ha" will be greeted there with as big a welcome as it has at Lee High.

SARAH ELIZABETH BAYLOR

"Speech is great, but silence greater."

Phoenix Literary Society; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Senior Basketball Team.

Sarah is our quietest and most bashful girl in the classroom, but when she is with a few friends she is one of the merriest of the crowd. She is a good student and we are sure wherever she goes she will make good. Our best wishes go with you Sarah.

LEEWAY.

GEORGE MOFFETT COCHRAN

Phoenix Literary Society '24-'28; Lee High Boys Club; "Grumbler" Senior Class '27-'28; Vice-President Phoenix Literary Society '27-'28; Baseball Squad '27-'28; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Associate Editor LEEWAY '28; General Athletic Association '24, '25-'26, '27-'28.

Ever since George has come into high school he has been a favorite. He has been a good student and stands high in his classes. George has a keen sense of humor which is very essential to anyone who would make friends and hold them. By the way, George is our class wit. He is also very tactful, always saying and doing the right thing at the right time. This, we know, will be of great value to him in his future life. As for common sense, George has his share.

In baseball, George has been a member of the squad for two years and has worked hard. He is a member of the Lee High Boys' Club being a very valuable one. He is always willing to do his part in the school activities.

He is furthering his high school career in going to the Episcopal High School. We hope that he will do credit to it like he has done to Lee High and we send him with best wishes for success.

EARLE VAN DINE COVILLE

"JERRY"

"A lover of right, a scorner of wrong."

Philomathean Literary Society; Hi-Y Club; Football '27-'28; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Assistant Subscription Manager LEEWAY '28; Chairman Picture Committee Senior Class; Chairman Philomathean Program Committee '28; Virginia State Hi-Y Club; General Athletic Association '25-'26, '27-'28.

"Seen Jerry?" "Where's Jerry?" Questions of this nature float around Lee High daily—showing Jerry's popularity. Earle is one of those persons who is selected for many committees, and the like, because of his good judgment and his willingness to aid in any way he can.

Earle is also a football player of note having been chosen as a member of the mythical all-Shenandoah eleven.

LEEWAY

BEVERLY ANNE BENDER

"BEV"

"And in her slender shape are seen Hint and promise of stately mien."

Phoenix Literary Society; General Athletic Association; Treasurer Girl Reserve Club '26-'27;
Secretary Phoenix Literary Society '28.

Beverly—the sweetest girl in the class! And truly to know her is to love her. Dependable—that's "Bev," and we believe she is one girl who "rates" with everybody.

Beverly hasn't decided yet what she will do after she leaves Lee High, but somehow, we have the idea that someone else will decide that for Beverly.

The best wishes of our class go with you, "Bev."

LEEWAY

MARY ELLEN BRIGHT

Phenix Literary Society; General Athletic Association '24-'25; Chorus "Flapper Grandmother";
Chorus "Rose of Tokio."

Here you see Mary Ellen, the biggest flirt of our dignified (?) class. But Mary Ellen's mind is far removed from her unconscious flirtations, because she captures some of the highest marks made in the senior class. She has served as a valuable member of the Phenix Literary Society in helping plan excellent programs. Mary Ellen is a good sport, always willing to help when called upon. She is liked by both faculty and students. We shall miss you very much, Mary Ellen. "Good-bye, good luck!"

LEEWAY.

JOHN FRANK BROWN

"SATURDAY"

Phoenix Literary Society; General Athletic Association '26-'27, '27-'28; Baseball '27;
Cast "Rose of Tokio."

John or Johnny as he is better known at school has taken an active part in the school activities.

"Saturday" is one of the best liked fellows in our class. His work in the dramatic and athletic activities has been outstanding.

John scored a great success by his work as "Saturday" in the Rose of Tokio and no one who has seen him "rounding up" flies in the outfield, will doubt his ability as an athlete.

More power to you Johnny because we are confident that you will be a success wherever you go.

LEEWAY

RICHARD PHILLIPS BELL

"DICK"

Phoenix Literary Society; General Athletic Association '25-'26, '27-'28; Hi-Y Club '26, '27-'28; Virginia State Hi-Y Club '26, '27-'28; Cast "Rose of Tokio"; Football Squad '26.

One of the friendliest and best liked members of the Class of '28 is Dick. He is the embodiment of geniality, and has an unusual capacity for coöperation in school activities. A staunch supporter of Lee High always, "Dick" has shown all the deserved enthusiasm for school affairs. As a member of the Senior Class Social Committee he helped bring about the long hoped for "Spring Entertainment." As Dr. Wo in the "Rose of Tokio," "Dick" revealed a histrionic ability sufficient to cause John Barrymore great apprehension and uneasiness lest he lose his position, for "Richard" is not Shakespeare's "poor player that frets and struts his hour upon the stage."

A fond farewell to thee, oh! "Dick."

CHRISTINE VIRGINIA HERNDON

"TEENIE"

"The load becomes light which is cheerfully borne."

Philomathean Literary Society; Vice-President Girl Reserve Club '27-'28; Literary Critic of Philomathean Literary Society '28; Cast of "Rose of Tokio."

"Teenie," as she is universally known, is the wittiest girl of our Senior Class. She always chases the blues away with her cheery word for each and everyone. What would we have done without her fun and cheerful spirit in our four years in Lee High.

"Teenie" is a very active and capable student, as she has proved more than once. We know that she will win friends in life just as she has won the love of her fellow classmates.

"Teenie" is another who has not yet decided what line of work she will pursue but we're all expecting great things of her.

She has won for herself a warm place in Lee High and in the hearts of her school friends. It will be many a long year before "Teenie" is forgotten.

LEEWAY

VIRGINIA MAE COLLINS

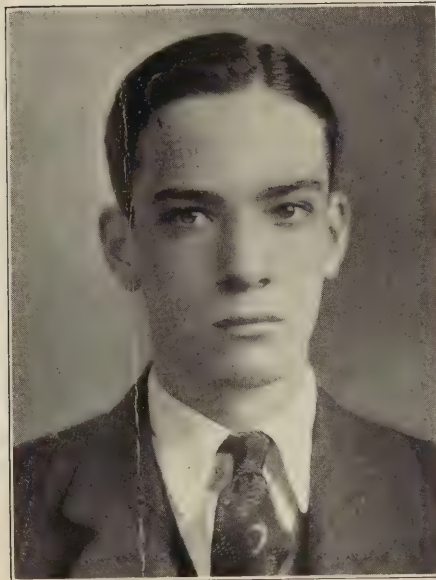

"GINSE"

*"So mild, so merciful, so strong, so good—
So patient, loyal, loving, pure."*

Treasurer Phoenix Literary Society '27-'28; Glee Club; Athletic Association '27-'28; Chorus
"Rose of Tokio."

Virginia is quiet, but that doesn't mean she doesn't take an interest in school activities, for she does. She is a conscientious student and always faithful to her duty. Virginia has a good disposition and believes in completing her tasks, while the rest of the class are still grumbling. She has proved to us she has musical talent and we expect her to win success in the realm of music.

LEEWAY

RUDOLPH BUMGARDNER, JR.

"TOOTS"

Phoenix Literary Society '24-'28; General Athletic Association '24-'28; Hi-Y Club '25-'26, '26-'27, '27-'28; Virginia State Hi-Y Club '26; Treasurer Hi-Y Club '26-'27; Secretary Hi-Y Club '27-'28; Football Squad '26; Sophomore Reporter Record '25-'26; Assistant Business Manager Record '26-'27; Associate Editor Record '26-'27; Orchestra '27-'28; Varsity Football '27; Business Manager LEEWAY '28; President Phoenix Literary Society '28; Cast "Rose of Tokio"; Monogram Club '28.

Ever since "Bum" or, "Toots" came into high school he has been an active participant in school activities. From the first day he seemed to grip the much talked of school spirit and has held it ever since. He is a hard worker and undertakes and does well any task he is assigned.

"Toots" has shown a fine spirit in regard to athletics. He was awarded a letter in football this year which he greatly deserved, on account of his willing work. In the Hi-Y Club he has held the offices of both secretary and treasurer, both of which he filled with great success and efficiency.

Wherever "Toots" may go or whatever he may do, we wish him the best success.

LEEWAY

JOSEPH KENNETH BRADFORD

"JOE"

"Quality, not quantity"

Philomathean Literary Society; General Athletic Association '23-'24, '24-'25, '26-'27, '27-'28;
 Freshman Reporter Record '23-24; Sergeant-at-Arms Philomathean Literary Society '24-'25;
 Baseball "S" '24-'25, '25-'26; Football "S" '24-25-'26-'27-'28; Monogram Club '24-'25-
 '26-'27-'28; Vice-President Junior Class '26-'27; Hi-Y Club '26-'27-'28; Athletic Editor Record '26-'27-'28; Athletic Editor the LEEWAY '26-'27-'28; Athletic Council '26-'27-'28; Basketball "S" '26-'27-'28; Captain of Baseball '26-'27-'28;
 Secretary Monogram Club '26-'27; Vice-President Senior Class '27-'28;
 Secretary-Treasurer General Athletic Association '27-'28; Parliamentary Critic Philomathean Literary Society '27-'28; Chorus
 "Rose of Tokio" '27-'28; Virginia State Hi-Y Club;
 Honorary Member General Athletic Association
 '25-'26, '26-'27, '27-'28.

"Joe," who, perhaps, at some rare moment, may be dignified by the name of Joseph Kenneth Bradford. "Joe" is running over with school spirit as may be seen by a glance at the list above, of his school activities. He has excelled in all athletics and, in fact, in all forms of school activities, but with all of his busy hours he has not forgotten the "eternal feminine."

Joe has done a great deal for both Record and LEEWAY, especially in the office of Editor of Athletics.

The cutest boy of our class has always been popular with everyone at Lee High and we are more than sorry to lose him. His fast running will certainly be missed next year in football, in which he has made many a brilliant play.

Hampden-Sidney is gaining a valuable student when it gets "Joe."

MARY SUE KENNEDY

"SOOZIE"

*"If a good face is a letter of recommendation,
A good heart is a letter of credit."*

Secretary Phœnix Literary Society '28; Girl Reserve Club '27-'28; Chorus "Microbe of Love";
Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; General Athletic Association.

Mary Sue, voted the "laziest" girl in the Hall of Fame, is one of our most energetic helpers. If there is an emergency call for help, you can depend on Mary Sue being one of the first to respond. To those who know her well, she is a constant joy,—ready for comradeship, and a really good student withal.

We do not know what Sue has chosen for her life's work, but this we do know,—whatever it is, she will do it well. Our best wishes go with her.

LEEWAY

BERNICE FRANCES COHEN

"BARE-KNEES"

"Small but oh how dear to us!"

Phoenix Literary Society; Phoenix Literary Critic '27-'28; Girl Reserve Club '26-'27-'28; Glee Club '24-'27-'28; Cast and Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; General Athletic Association '25-'28.

Bernice is not only a bright girl but a studious one as well; and she knows how to get results. This, however, doesn't mean that she loses her share of fun and good times (Indeed, she is a member of our secret order of "Bang-a-Wows!").

Bernice is the cutest girl we have, and because of her personality has a wide circle of friends. She has not decided where she will continue her good work, but we are sure there is no necessity of a prophecy in regard to her future success.

Best wishes of the Class of '28 go with you, Bernice!

HOWARD PARKINS GRIM

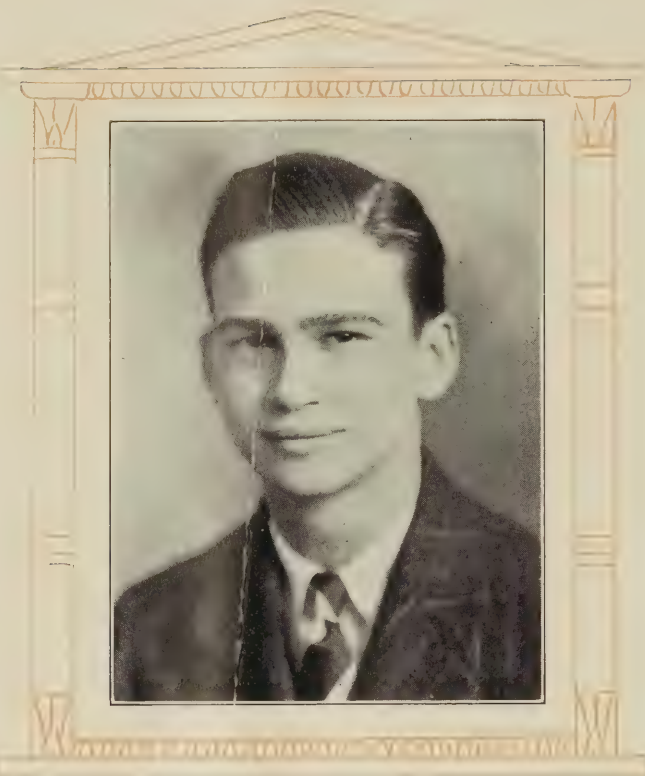

"TOOTS"

"Who brings sunshine into the life of another has sunshine in his own."

General Athletic Association; Phoenix Literary Society; Record Staff; '25-'28; Athletic Council; '24-'28; Honorary Member Athletic Association '24-'28; President Boys' Club '27-'28; Editor-in-Chief Record '27-'28; Vice-President Boys' Club '26-'27; Associate Editor The Record '25-'26; Charter Member Boys' Club; Manager of Basketball '24-'25; Manager of Football '25-'26-'27-'28; LEEWAY Staff '26-'27; Joke Editor The Record '26-'27; Joke Editor THE LEEWAY '26-'27; ("Dick" Smith) "Rose of Tokio"; Reporter Phoenix Literary Society '26-'27; Chairman Publicity Committee "Rose of Tokio"; Delegate Southern Interscholastic Press Conference '28; Monogram Club '27-'28; Conductor "Leeway Lines," The Evening Leader; Committee Senior Class night; Publicity Director Athletics '24-'28.

Howard's popularity is evidenced by his participation in such a variety of our school activities. With characteristic perseverance he has made the Record an outstanding success this year and has ably "carried on" as president of the Boys' Club.

However, he has never lost his appreciation for fun. Howard is a literary enthusiast and in time we expect to hear of him as one of our leading journalists.

FRANK ARMSTRONG LASLEY, JR.

"PETE"

Phoenix Literary Society; General Athletic Association; Hi-Y Club '25-'28; Football Squad '26; Assistant Advertising Manager LEEWAY '28; Football "S" '27-'28; Treasurer Hi-Y Club '27-'28; Monogram Club '27-'28; Honorary Member General Athletic Association '27-'28; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Virginia State Hi-Y Club.

"Pete" has the talent of making friends and holding them. He is always cheerful and a willing worker. Whenever "Pete" makes up his mind to do a thing, he does it, and does it well. There is nothing but plain logic in his philosophy, which is highly respected by his classmates.

"Pete" has worked hard in athletics for several years, for which he is to be commended. This year he made his "S" in football. "Pete" is also a valuable asset to the Hi-Y Club, being treasurer of that organization this year.

O—Yes, he is also one of '28's famous lions among the ladies, now we know he must have "It."

We know that Hampden-Sidney will give "Pete" a hearty welcome, and we bid him a fond farewell.

LEEWAY

RUBY PEARL DAVIS

"BOBBY"

*"I've come to see the goal on which happiness depends
And knowing you has taught me this
The greatest joy is from good friends."*

Philomathean Literary Society; Girl Reserves Club; Glee Club; Chorus "Rose of Tokio."

Who is more willing to lend a helping hand than Ruby? No one, I am certain. If you are looking for a friend you could not hope to find a truer one. Ruby, with her ever-ready, sunny smile and happy disposition, is a friend to everyone.

You can always depend on her to do her best and you may be sure that her best is worthy of note. She will ever be remembered by her fellow classmates as well as the faculty. Our school career has not been all happiness, but Ruby has certainly helped to make a great deal.

She has not, as yet, decided what her life work will be but we know she will be a success. What words spell success more clearly than loyalty and dependability? Keep it up, Ruby, and you will surely win your share of it.

LEE WAY

CATHERINE LEE HARPER

"KITTY"

Secretary Philomathean Literary Society; Girl Reserves; Glee Club; Philomathean Literary Society; Chorus "Rose of Tokio."

Catherine is an active member in the affairs of Lee Hi, as shown by the organizations of which she has been a member. As secretary of the Philomathean Literary Society she has acquitted herself with honor.

However, Catherine does not allow her activities to interfere with her studies and stands high among the Seniors. Also, in her Junior year she won the medal for the best story published in the Record, which shows that she has devoted much of her time to literary work.

We can count on Catherine to do her best for the school and this along with her personality has won her many friends. We do not know where Catherine will go after graduation but do know that she will be as successful as she has been at Lee Hi.

GEORGE FREDERICK EARMAN, JR.

"EARMAN"

*"Bid me discourse, I will enchant thine ear."
"His words do show his wit."*

Philomathean Literary Society '24-'25; Hi-Y Club '24-'25; Virginia State Hi-Y Club '26-'27-'28; Assistant Subscription Manager The Record '26-'27; Associate Editor LEEWAY '26-'27; Vice-President Philomathean Literary Society '26-'27; Secretary Hi-Y Club '26-'27; Football Squad '26; President Lee High Orchestra '28; Delegate Southern Interscholastic Press Conference '28; General Athletic Association; Cast "Rose of Tokio"; President Philomathean Literary Society '27-'28; President Hi-Y Club '27-'28; Editor-in-Chief LEEWAY '28.

Here we have a combination of brains and school-spirit. George has taken part in almost every activity at Lee High (except, perhaps, the Girl Reserve Club, although no doubt, he's interested!) and his executive ability and influence have done a great deal towards their promotion.

George is the most tactful member of our class, which, together with his good looks, makes him one of the most popular among both girls and boys. He also has a talent for public speaking, music, art, "wise-cracking" and making friends,—especially making friends.

Good luck, George, from your many friends.

WILLIAM STUART MOFFETT, JR.

"SQUAT"

*"Some shout him, and some hang upon his car,
To gaze in his eyes and bless him."*

President Philomathean Literary Society '28; General Athletic Association '26-'27-'28; Assistant Business Manager of Record '27-'28; Hi-Y Club '26-'27-'28; Subscription Manager of LEEWAY '27-'28; Senior Class Grumbler; Assistant Cheer Leader; Football Squad '27-'28; Cast "Rose of Tokio"; Monogram Club.

Pictured here is our very witty "Class Grumbler," and what would the Class of '28 have done without him. His, "grumbling" has helped many a weary senior to struggle through the day. "Bill," is interested in every activity and when it comes to speaking in chapel or literary society he can't be beat. He reminds one of a congressional speaker and perhaps some day we shall hear of him being nominated for president.

"Squat's," "winning ways," are renowned, and his popularity with the teachers and boys as well as the fairer (?) sex is assured. We can't blame the girls for falling for "Bill" for he surely is a "heartbreaker."

LEEWAY

MARY ELLEN DRAKE

"Steadiness, humbleness and friendliness are just qualities."

Phoenix Literary Society; General Athletic Association; Volleyball Team '27.

Mary Ellen is one of the steady, dependable members of our class. Although rather quiet she is always willing to help her classmates and do her part. She has a cheerful disposition and a smile for everyone. Her pet aversion is walking, for no matter how pretty the weather or how short the distance Mary Ellen rides to school. So when she rides away from us our best wishes go with her.

MARY ELEANOR HOOK

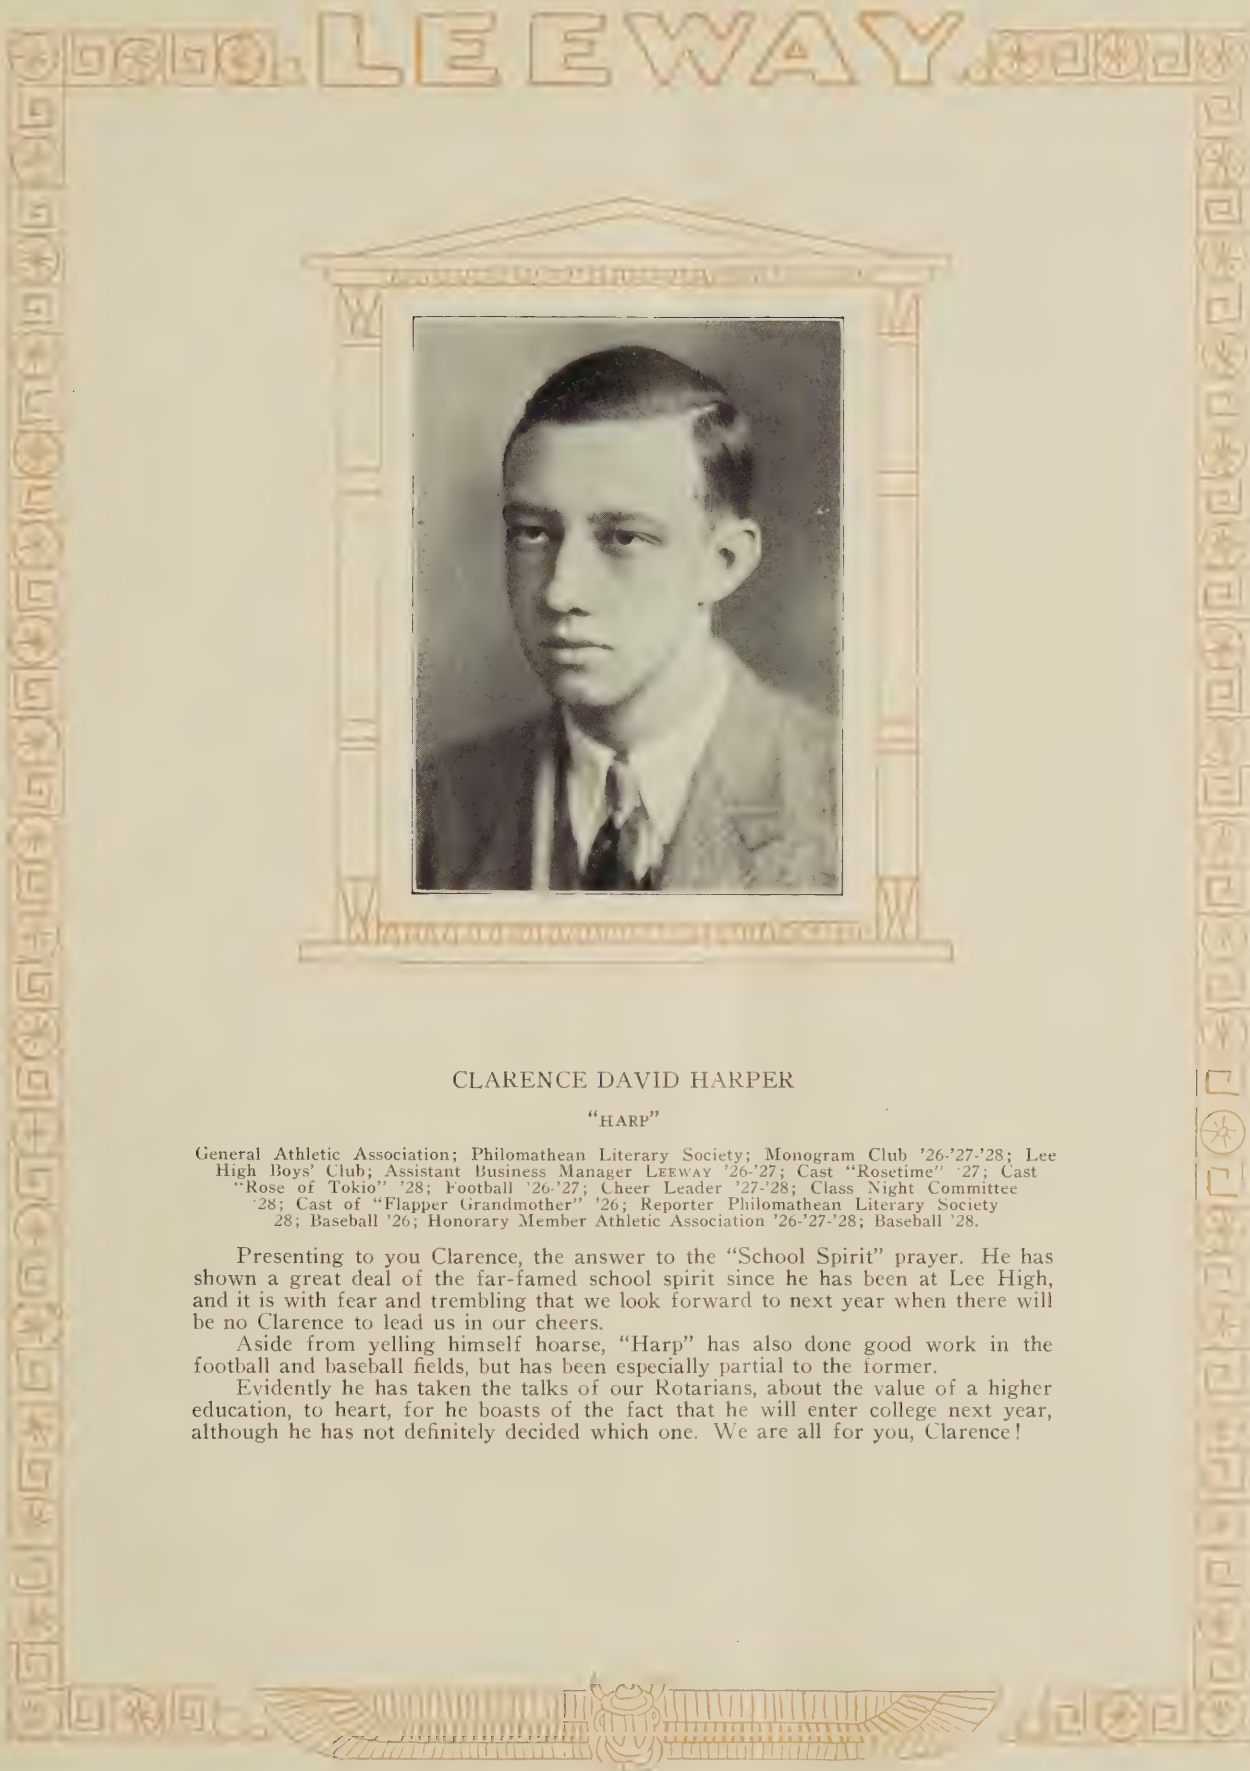

"NAN"

Phoenix Literary Society; General Athletic Association; Glee Club; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Girl Reserve Club.

There comes Eleanor; she breezes around and all in all, accomplishes a great deal. Eleanor is energetic and conscientious—sterling qualities—are they not?

We think Eleanor has "Foreign" ideas; we mean by this, that the Spanish class contributed much to her enjoyment of Lee High and in later life one of her former classmates is likely to encounter Miss Hook in the rôle of Spanish "professor" in college.

May her pupils love her as we have.

CLARENCE DAVID HARPER

"HARP"

General Athletic Association; Philomathean Literary Society; Monogram Club '26-'27-'28; Lee High Boys' Club; Assistant Business Manager LEEWAY '26-'27; Cast "Rosetime" '27; Cast "Rose of Tokio" '28; Football '26-'27; Cheer Leader '27-'28; Class Night Committee '28; Cast of "Flapper Grandmother" '26; Reporter Philomathean Literary Society '28; Baseball '26; Honorary Member Athletic Association '26-'27-'28; Baseball '28.

Presenting to you Clarence, the answer to the "School Spirit" prayer. He has shown a great deal of the far-famed school spirit since he has been at Lee High, and it is with fear and trembling that we look forward to next year when there will be no Clarence to lead us in our cheers.

Aside from yelling himself hoarse, "Harp" has also done good work in the football and baseball fields, but has been especially partial to the former.

Evidently he has taken the talks of our Rotarians, about the value of a higher education, to heart, for he boasts of the fact that he will enter college next year, although he has not definitely decided which one. We are all for you, Clarence!

LEEWAY

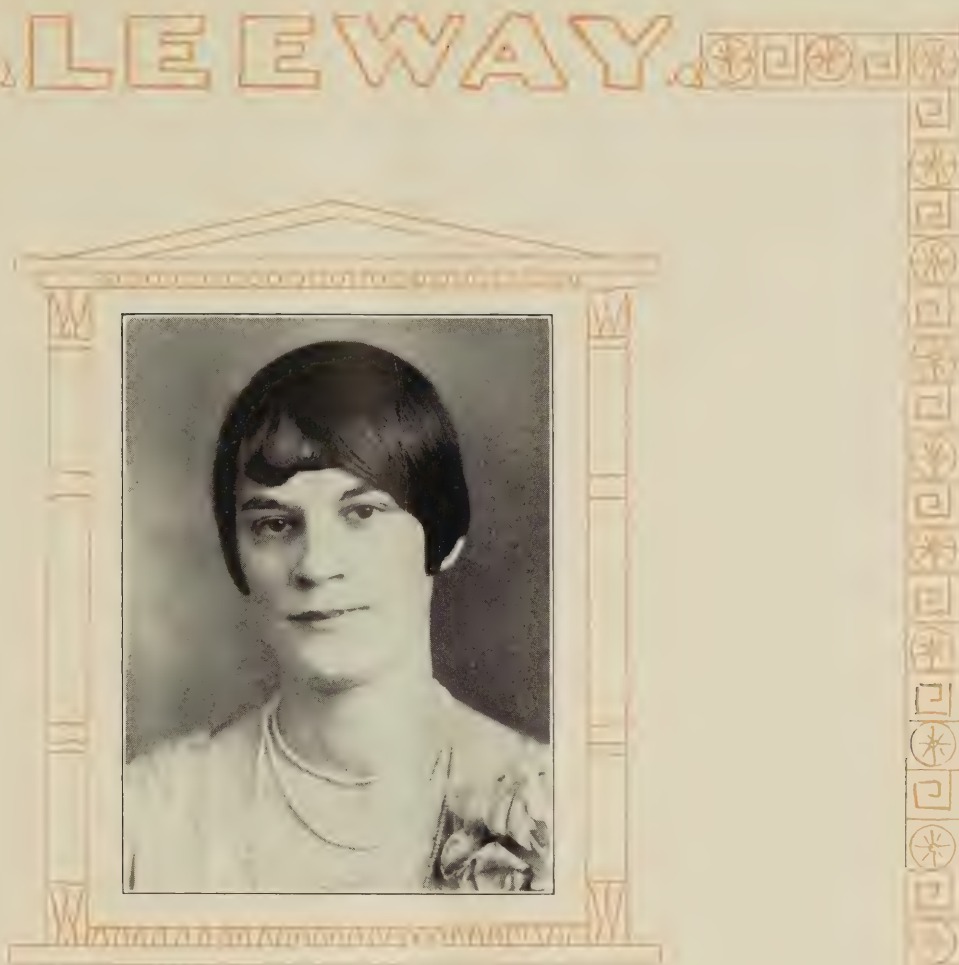

HARRY RETHEISER MUSSER

Phoenix Literary Society; Advertising Committee "The Rose of Tokio"; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Athletic Association.

Harry is one of the quiet members of the Senior Class, not being heard from very often during the discussions. He is more interested in his studies than in the movements about him, but when called upon, does his bit,

When in need of a real friend, however, Harry may be counted upon.

Harry's course after graduation from Lee is uncertain but we wish him success in whatever he may undertake.

FRANCES VIRGINIA HOGSHEAD

*"Happy am I, from care I'm free!
Why aren't they all contented like me?"*

Phoenix Literary Society; Athletic Association '28; Glee Club '24-'28; Girl Reserves Club '28; Chorus "Rose of Tokio."

Virginia is one of the dependable members of our class. She is always willing to help her classmates in any way she can.

Keeping the library seems to be a favorite hobby of hers and we are sure that if she decides to take up this kind of work later she will make a success of it.

ANNE PAGE LACKEY

Phoenix Literary Society; Phoenix Literary Critic '28; General Athletic Association '27-'28;
Girl Reserve Club '26-'27-'28; Cast and Chorus "Rose of Tokio."

Anne is one of our cutest and prettiest girls. Although she has a petite figure, and has to look up to the opposite sex she always wins a place in every students heart. But we know precious things come in small packages. Anne hasn't quite decided upon her career but we are all sure of great success for her no matter what she undertakes. Here's to your success and happiness, Anne.

THOMAS HAMILTON HOGSHEAD

"TOM"

Freshman Reporter '24-'25; Vice-President of Philomathean Society '27-'28; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Assistant Advertisement Manager of Record '27-'28; Treasurer of Senior Class '27-'28; Class Valedictorian.

"Tom" is the champion of scholastic activity in the Senior Class, and from birdseye views at his reports it seems that he is perfectly capable of the position.

His able efforts in the pursuit of learning are recognized by his classmates and he was voted the most studious and brightest boy in the supposedly brilliant class.

As treasurer of the Class of '28 "Tom" had his "hands full." Varying from twenty-five cents to several hundred dollars, the treasury was a good example of fluctuating finances, but the position was very ably filled.

"Tom" was voted the best looking boy in the class, but he modestly deprives the public of views at his ruddy countenance by tearing over the country on his motorcycle at a goodly rate of speed.

MEREDITH HINER SILLING

"MERRY"

"On their own merits modest men are dumb."

Philomathean Literary Society; Athletic Association '25

One of the few Philomathean Tennis Champions who has not yet entered the "Love Game," is our good friend "Merry." He is one of the staunch members of the "Woman Hater Club," hence his attraction to all the feminine flappers as "unconquered property."

As for his history—nothing more can be added to the brilliance of his Civil War Campaigns.

His chief amusement (besides ignoring all women) is playing "All Alone," on his uke, or listening in on his radio.

We shall always remember "Merry" as a sweet unsophisticated boy. Long may you remain so, "Merry" we admire you for it.

JEAN HUTCHESON LONG

"JEANIE"

Philomathean Literary Society; Charter Member Girl Reserve Club; Chorus "Rose of Tokio"; Glee Club.

Jean is the athletic type of girl, going out for all classes of sports. She has gained note in the Red Cross Life Saving Club for her expert swimming. On the other hand Jean is a good student, and although she seems to think a great deal of the body beautiful, she has a keen and alert mind when it comes to quick thinking.

Mary is an all round girl well-known and well-liked at Lee High.

Just watch her in "gym," what a "rep" as a guard. Listen to her sing that "Indian Love Call" and be charmed with the melody of her voice. As a Spanish Señorita Mary is the first and last word—versatile Mary!

Mary formed a part of the backbone of the Class of '28, and those patients she will nurse will recognize the steadfastness and good humor of their nurse.

Norman came to us from Iola, Kansas, but it didn't take us the two years he has been with us to recognize his worth. He is the embodiment of the dignity of our most dignified class, and is very reserved, which, however, does not overshadow in the least his splendid spirit of coöperation and interest.

Norman is a diligent student, and whenever he offers a discussion or an opinion, he is listened to with due respect.

You have many friends at Lee High, Norman, who wish you the best luck in the world.

Hensford is everybody's favorite because he is jolly and sociable to the highest degree, and will always give you a good time if he can. And when it comes to school spirit and stick-to-it-tiveness he is right there with the goods. Hensford is a good friend to everybody and lucky! Whew! It seems like he could get by with anything.

We predict a theatrical career for Hensford after his fine acting in the "Rose of Tokio."

Philomathean Literary Society; General Athletic Association; Girl Reserve Club; Glee Club; Lee High Orchestra; Secretary Philomathean Literary Society '28; Cast "Rose of Tokio"; Cheer Leader '28; Social Editor LEEWAY '28.

Bang-a-Wow! Here she comes. Yes, she is the prettiest, most attractive, and most popular girl in our class, which is a good bit to say about anybody. "Tots," is an exception to the rule of "beautiful but dumb," since she is graduating with twenty units. She has combined business with pleasure and the result is gratifying, to say the least.

"Tots" never shirks her duty to her school, but is always willing to help in any way she can, especially in music.

She has not decided yet just where she is going next year, but wherever it is, she is sure to be remembered by the students of old R. E. Lee High.

And so she does! But then Isabel always has something worth while to say, and so we are all willing listeners, especially when she propounds one of her ingenious plans for raising money, or offers a suggestion. Isabel has proved an exceptionally good manager of business as well as social affairs, and can be depended upon to successfully carry out any task assigned to her.

She has won many friends by being a friend, and who will forget that familiar landmark—"Isso's" "Run-Tin-Tin" packed with both faculty members and students?

Isabel goes in training at Johns Hopkins, and our best wishes for success go with her. Good luck ever! Isso!

If the quiet members of the Senior Class should form a club, John would be eligible for membership. Quietness is one of his marked characteristics.

This is not especially a drawback for it gives him more time for his studies.

John will not make a success in a profession which demands the loud word, the boisterous, and action, but we know that in other work, his very marked self-control and seriousness will win him recognition. So we wish him all the success in life and more to come.

Jane is a lover of nature and all the outdoors; she is particularly interested in the forestry service. We will not be surprised if Jane is the first member of the fair sex to be employed by our government as a national forest ranger.

Jane is very studious and though rather shy in expressing it she has a keen sense of humor. This makes it no less a virtue, however.

If a strong will, perseverance and high ideals mean anything in this world Jane will certainly make her mark in life.

The familiar laugh of "Louie" Stover is easily detected from any given spot in Lee High School. Care-free, and happy-go-lucky by nature, "Lou" can certainly get serious enough to be one of the flashiest basketball players ever to wear the blue and white. When "Louie" is in form on the court he is a delight to his supporters and a terror to the opposition. In the Senior play "Louie" nearly "brought down the house," as the ideal chief of the undertakers.

"Ev," one of the sweetest and most refined members of our class always has a smile for everyone. "Ev" has the happy faculty of always being in a good humor and having a kind word for each of us. She is very studious, but she always has time to lend a helping hand, as the members of the 4-B French class can tell you, and she is very popular with all of the student body.

Evelyn has decided to take up nursing as her life's work and we are sure that her bright smile will aid many in making a swift recovery.

We haven't heard Louise say so, as yet, but we imagine she is rather fond of baseball. Oh! for different reasons.

Louise is a studious member of our studious (?) class. She is a good student and the faculty likes her because of her good recitations and dependability.

George Tazewell is one of the outstanding reasons why ladies prefer blondes (if such is the case). His great claim to fame is his ability to place his feet before him without loss of vigor, vim, or enthusiasm. As a devotee of the art of Terpsichore, "English" is in a class by himself, but notwithstanding his nervous pedatory organs, he has a great deal of school and club spirit.

His ability to cooperate and above all, his wealth of original ideas have placed "Taz" high in activities of the school.

Here's to you Grace! We wish you the same success in your profession that you have had in the past in school.

Grace would also make a good addition to "Flo Ziegfield's Charmers," as shown by her performances in plays of the year.

Valedictory

THOMAS HOGSHEAD

As we muse over the sweet memories of our High School days and eagerly await commencement, the goal toward which we have so long been striving, we are filled with emotions, fraught with both joy and sadness. Gladly we would have prolonged the time that has hurried us so swiftly through our beloved High School. Old Lee High seems doubly dear and beautiful to us now, as we are about to leave it.

Just as a charioteer hurries on his steeds over the swift course, so old Father Time has sped on with us. And now we are ready to leave this beloved place where we have spent so many bright and happy hours, and where we have received such valuable training.

Our training has embraced not only the actual book knowledge, which, of course, is essential to a well educated person, but has also given us a thorough understanding of the educational process as related to our future lives. And we are well able to grasp the underlying significance of the following words of President Faunce, of Brown University:

Education is not a charity, it is part of the national defense. Fewer submarines and more high schools constitute the best program for defending America. The most useful studies are not those dealing with bread and butter, but those removing from the mind of youth its prejudices, its distorted views of other nations, its racial and religious hatreds.

Modern science, to which we owe so much, which has virtually created our present civilization, is necessarily silent concerning values. It can tell us how to construct an automobile, but not how to use it or in what direction to travel. The purpose and the goal of life, the aims and ideals of a democratic world—to explain these and make them alluring—is the adventurous calling and the indispensable function of the teachers of America.

The word, "Farewell," may mean much or little. To us it means much. For us it marks the rounding off and completion of a chapter in our lives, the severance of ties, many and cherished, the parting of friends.

Yes, "Farewell," or our good old English word, "Goodbye," is a difficult word for the Class of 1928 to utter.

But our beloved school is not sending us away empty-handed, or alone. No, we go forth filled with happy memories of, and unalloyed pride in, our school and its warm-hearted teachers.

Teachers, it is with a feeling of deep sorrow that we bid you goodbye, you who have led us along the rough ways of our High School course and brought us safely to our goal. And in the years to come, we shall always remember you as the thoughtful, kind, and enduring guides, who helped us win this victory.

Classmates, we have come to the parting of the way. Our graduation is a dividing line in our lives, the line between preparation and action. Hereafter, each must form new friendships and new intimacies; but we must not forget each other. Little outstanding characteristics of each of us will serve to fix in our minds the classmates we have learned to love.

And since the parting has come, let us part with an abiding faith in the future. Let us part believing in the ultimate triumph of right over wrong. Let us keep faith with the future by an unfaltering trust in the fidelity of man to man.

Salutatory

BERNICE COHEN

RIENDS, teachers, and fellow-classmates of the Robert E. Lee High School, I esteem it a great honor and pleasure to welcome you here this evening in behalf of the school, and of the Class of '28.

We, the second class to graduate from this beautiful new building of ours, are regretfully leaving our school to other classmates to carry on. It is a precious burden and one that can be successfully borne only by the co-operation of students and faculty. To the teachers who started us in our primary work, to the ones who guided us faithfully through the grammar school, and to those with whom we have diligently worked for the last four years, we offer our deepest gratitude and appreciation for their kindness and patience in helping us overcome our seemingly unconquerable problems.

We leave this school with the realization that there are many big tasks ahead of us, many obstacles to block our way. And yet, we set out with untroubled minds and glad hearts, for we know that we have received that sound training which has made us mentally alert, and awakened in us the determination to take life at its true worth. Further knowledge will come to us through our actual experience.

We are hoping and striving to put as much into life as we expect to receive from it. We have seen and been taught throughout our high school career that those who contribute little, cannot hope for big returns. Those of us who have given earnest attention to school duties are now rewarded with our diplomas, tangible symbols of knowledge and power. Those who were capable of the big and great things did not have to wait long for recognition from teachers and fellow-pupils. Thus shall it be in life.

Big rewards go to those who have worked to reach the top. Luck plays an exceedingly small part in the world. It is not chance that brings one to the fore. The one who reaches his goal has labored unceasingly, and has spent many weary, dark hours in trying to succeed. If, on the other hand, we sacrifice work for pleasure, we cannot expect success. If we hope to be big and really amount to something, we must work while others idle away the time in play.

We cannot hope for recognition at first, but must rather start with small matters and gradually work our way up the ladder of Fame. It is often the little things that count. If we do these little tasks well and thus prepare ourselves for the big ones, we may be sure that opportunities will not be lacking.

With this assurance we leave our High School, some to set at once to work, to make good in the business world, others to pursue their education in college, to learn still more, of the problems that await us, and how to overcome them.

I salute you, Class of '28, and in your name extend a most hearty and sincere greeting to our guests.

Class Prophecy

BRRRRRRR!—rrrrrrrrr!!! The half-hour bell of the fourth period resounded through the long corridors, telling the drowsy students that soon we could leave the sultry schoolrooms for the day. As the ringing ceased, the students heaved a sigh of relief. The boys slumped down in their seats and the girls tried propping their chins in their hands for a change. Save for an occasional bump of Walker's broom against a door, and now and then the murmur of a voice in the adjoining classroom, all was quiet. The tiny wings of a fly lazily encircling my head seemed to be humming a lullaby to me, and gradually the weight of my eyelids became so heavy that they slowly closed and my body relaxed in peaceful slumber.

When I awoke I rubbed my eyes and looked wonderingly about me. As far as I could see, there were stacks and stacks of newspapers. I sat down near a huge pile and picking up one, glanced at the date, which was August 20, 1940. Instead of seeing the expected headlines, namely, the latest news of Lindbergh, Mussolini, or Al Smith, I was greatly surprised to have greet my eyes names far more familiar to me. Standing out in bold, black type were such items as the following:

Miss Jean Long, renowned artist, has returned from Paris, where her masterpiece, "Sunset," was exhibited. The picture was sold for 100,000,000 francs to Count Waste de Painte.

Mr. Rudolph Bumgardner has accepted the professorship of Latin in the Robert E. Lee High School, succeeding Miss Margaret Eakle. The citizens of Staunton are assured that their children will receive a thorough training in this subject, since Professor Bumgardner has spent many years in the deep and earnest study of this language, and since he is so devoted to his first love (?!??), Place's "Beginning Latin."

Mr. G. Tazewell Walters, the well-known illustrator, has just returned from a European tour. "The trip was a huge success," said Mr. Walters as he left the boat. "Especially the German beer."

It has been reported that the greatest drawing cards of the Astorbilt Hotel in New York City are the menus of Miss Mary Sue Kennedy, the dining room manager.

Mr. Francis Lineweaver, lecturer and actor, besides being president of the Chevrolet Auto Co., has stated that he will take up permanent residence at "Bethborough," his newly purchased estate a few odd miles from Farmville, Va. Mr. Lineweaver, since his boyhood days, it is understood, has been especially fond of this delightful section of the country.

The Honorable George F. Earman, Jr., embarked yesterday upon the America, bound for Nicaragua, to attend the Arbitration Convention. The Nicaraguan disputes, which have continued for many years, are expected to be brought to a close under the competent, tactful handling of Mr. Earman.

Mrs. George Browning Thompson Depew Carlyle, formerly Miss Mary Ellen Bright, has secured her divorce from George Cannings Carlyle, multi-millionaire movie director. This is Miss Birght's fourth divorce, showing that she is still an accomplished flirt.

The two famous comedians, Messrs. Harper and Brown, better known as "Ho-Ho" and "Saturday," are enjoying a most successful run on Broadway this season. Their popularity has not been exceeded since the days of Moran and Mack.

Dr. Richard P. Bell, Jr., has returned from London, where he attended a convention of famous surgeons. Misses Isabel Walters and Mary Mitchell, graduates of Dr. Bell's hospital in Staunton, accompanied him.

An unexpected disclosure reveals that I. B. Bad, the author of last year's best seller, is none other than Mr. Lester Smith.

Mr. Kenneth Bradford, the world-famous diminutive athlete, has returned from the Olympic games, where he won several victories for America.

Mr. Howard Grim has recently accepted the editorship of the Brand's Gazette. It seems strange that Mr. Grim should accept so soon such a settled position, but we know he is capable of filling it efficiently. And who can tell, perhaps he is planning to marry "That Old Sweetheart of His!"

Mrs. Bernice Cohen Flenington Davis (formerly Miss Bernice Cohen), the famous woman criminal lawyer, has gained international reputé by winning the Jennings murder case.

Miss Louise Woodall, whose cottage, "Bide-a-Wee," and adjoining playground, have just been completed, announced yesterday that her kindergarten classes will begin September first.

Professor Silling, head of the history department at Oshkosh University, has made a new discovery in archaeology. While digging weeds in his back yard, the great historian unearthed a bone, which is thought to be a cave man relic. (Some experts say that the bone is that of Dr. Silling's dog that died some two years ago.)

Miss Grace Wymer has gone to Paris, where she is quite in demand as a mannequin. Miss Wymer has the air and grace which make her desirable in exhibiting the latest Paris creations. Her specialty is wedding gowns.

Miss Josephine Smith's "Beneath a Florida Moon" is the song-hit of the season. It is featured by the popular baritone, Earl Coville, who is a Victor artist.

Dr. Thomas Hogshead, after ten years of research work at Mugwump College, has unquestionably proved that Darwin's theory is correct. "My first observations were made at Lee High School," said Dr. Hogshead, "when I became convinced that the theory was correct; but since my sojourn at dear old Mugwump I have become doubly certain that man is descended from a monkey."

Mr. Norman Potts, manager of the entire chain of the J. C. Penney Stores, is in Paris buying the new winter styles. While there Mr. Potts will introduce several of his own designs in evening and sport dresses.

Misses Evelyn Whitlock, Eleanor Hook, and Catherine Harper, Red Cross nurses, have returned to America, honorably discharged from service, due to wounds. They declare that the war with Japan is not nearing a close, and they plead for nurses to volunteer, as there is a shortage in some of the camps.

Miss Ruby Davis, noted health expert, was in town recently instructing the very fleshy on how to obtain a girlish figure.

John Erskine Stoddard, noted sportsman, has become editor for the Field and Stream.

Miss Beverly Bender has recently made a very important discovery in chemistry. This is the result of information Miss Bender gained from her chemistry professor when she was attending Lee High. It is asserted that her discovery will revolutionize the study of chemistry.

Dr. Frank Lasley will soon start his clinic for crippled children. This is a very beneficial project to the community, and they wish him the best of luck. His assistant will be Miss Catherine Harper, graduate of Johns Hopkins, and an experienced war nurse.

"Hally" Wilson, of the New York Yankees, hit his seventy-fifth foul ball of the season yesterday. He is quoted as saying that he attributes this success to "Stay-tied" shoe laces and hard cider, which he makes himself.

Miss Christine Herndon has arrived in Staunton, where she is to be the new Y. W. C. A. secretary. Accompanying her is Miss Anne Lackey, former tennis champion, who will take over the work of physical education in the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Virginia Collins, accomplished pianist, who is touring Europe, gave a concert at the request of King George of England at Buckingham Palace Friday night.

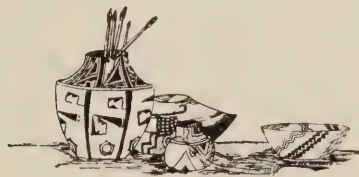

Miss Jane Kerr is succeeding very well as a French teacher. It is rumored, however, that she will soon leave this position for a more difficult one, that of housekeeper.

A new patent remedy has been placed on the market by Alden Towberman, one of the leading wholesale druggists in the East.

Miss Sarah Baylor, dietician at Walter Reed Hospital, arrived in Staunton today to attend the graduating exercises at the King's Daughters' Hospital here. She was accompanied by Miss Louise Randol and Miss Virginia Hogshead, who will address the graduating nurses Wednesday night.

As I eagerly scanned the pages for more news of my old friends, I dropped my cigarette, and before I could put out the tiny flame, the masses and masses of newspapers blazed up before my startled eyes. The heat became so intense that I cried aloud, "Goodness, I can't stand this heat!"

"You may move to the other side of the room, Eddie, if the sun bothers you," came the patient voice of my teacher.

Senior Class Will

WE, THE unfortunate, irrational, and incoherent Seniors of the Class of '28, being physically strong and mentally weak, and being unusually willing to vacate our place in this life to the joyful and illustrious Juniors, do make, declare, and publish this, our last and only will and testament, hereby revoking all previous wills made by us at any time, so that our valuable property may be rightfully disposed of.

FIRST—To Mr. Payne, our Principal, another Senior class as honorable, dignified, and lovable as we.

ITEM—To the Juniors, our privileges of talking in Study Hall.

ITEM—To the Sophomores, our frequent habit of going to Study Hall to inquire what the other class had in English or History.

ITEM—To the Freshmen, our excellent reports at the end of each six weeks.

ITEM—To Miss Eakle, a more co-operative and praiseworthy class.

ITEM—To Miss Roane, a new supply of laboratory equipment which has been destroyed by her careless Seniors.

ITEM—To Miss Fifer, an interpreter for her English class in case she has more students like Charles, the Englishman.

ITEM—To Miss Bell, what remains of Isabel Walter's Ford, to bring her to school each morning.

ITEM—To all members of the Faculty, we leave our thanks for their help during our High School career.

ITEM—To Louise Anderson, Sarah Baylor's boisterousness.

ITEM—To Ben Mosely, Richard Bell's dramatic qualities.

ITEM—To Margaret Parker, Beverly Bender's friendly disposition.

ITEM—To Sam Wilson, John Brown's rubber boots, in order that he may not be tardy on snowy mornings.

ITEM—To Charlotte Taylor, Mary E. Bright's flirtatious tendencies.

ITEM—To Richard Ergenbright, Rudolph Bumgardner's oratorical strength.

ITEM—To Isabel Kennedy, Bernice Cohen's petiteness.

ITEM—To Bill Moore, George Cochran's studiousness.

ITEM—To Frances Blakemore, Virginia Collins' vocal talent.

ITEM—To "Tony" Peduto, Earl Coville's popularity with the fair sex.

ITEM—To Anna Page Glover, Mary E. Drake's giggle.

ITEM—To Edwin Anderson, George Earman's distinguished manner of public speaking.

ITEM—To Griselda Arnold, Ruby Davis' modesty.

ITEM—To Allen Ayres, Howard Grim's editorial ability.

ITEM—To Mary McAleer, Christine Herndon's wit.

ITEM—To Jethro Manly, Clarence Harper's slang expressions.

Staunton Virginia

By MRS. THOS. F. OPIE

In the valley Shenandoah,
In the Old Dominion,—
Staunton, Virginia,—Staunton!—
Where the apples and the wheat,
Grow in such profusion,
Is Staunton, Virginia, Staunton!

There the heart is free from care,
In the Old Dominion,
Staunton, Virginia,—Staunton!—
And there's kindness ev'ry where,
Friendship and devotion,
In Staunton, Virginia, Staunton!

CHORUS

Staunton! Staunton!
City of the hills;—
Staunton! Staunton,
My heart with rapture thrills!
Staunton, City of my home,
In the Blue Ridge mountains,
O Staunton, Virginia, Staunton.

HI-Y ATHLETIC NIGHT

Social Events

We look upon our social calendar this year with pride and fond memories. We've played a great deal, and we have truly enjoyed it. In all our good times, "pep" and school spirit were the predominating notes.

The Freshmen were among the first in starting the fun and frolics. The Junior Girl Reserves, composed of "Freshies" gave a Hallowe'en party, as did the Senior Girls Club. Originality was the keynote of both parties.

The Hi-Y Club held its annual Faculty Night and this was very successful. The Hi-Y Club is always a delightful host.

Foremost among entertainments at Lee High were the famous Georgette Players, or troupe of Swiss bell-ringers. Their performance was highly entertaining as well as instructive. The program consisted of both classical and popular numbers, and many musical novelties.

The student body was entertained one morning by Mr. Barrett, a singer of note. He was also an expert performer with the musical saw.

Mr. Karl Jansen, humorist, appeared before us twice, and was greatly enjoyed each time. Later on the Hampton quartet (colored) sang negro spirituals to an enthusiastic audience.

During the Christmas season there was another entertainment in the form of an old-fashioned school, presented by the two literary societies. The recitations as well as the costumes were very amusing.

The Girls' Club had a Christmas tree at the "Y" and spread cheer and goodwill among its members.

On December 15, the Hi-Y Club held its annual Athletic Night. This was one of the outstanding social features of the year, and was a huge success.

LEEWAY

SCENE FROM "ROSE OF TOKIO"

The Freshman Jamboree was held in the school auditorium and in addition to the fun that prevailed, the "rats" showed their school spirit and gave evidence that they were coming to the front.

Then came that never-to-be-forgotten night of February 24, when the Seniors presented at the Beverley theatre their class play "Rose of Tokio," a Japanese musical comedy, which under the capable direction of Miss Roice of the John B. Rogers Producing Co., and the coöperation of the student body was one of the outstanding amateur performances of the season. The play was a great success and played to a capacity house.

Ho-Ho, the Mayor (Clarence Harper) has pledged his ward, Fu San (Josephine Smith), the Rose of Tokio, to Baron Keneko (George Earman) who was secretly at the head of a revolution. Fu San, meanwhile has fallen in love with a wandering minstrel. Ying Po (Francis Lineweaver). The Baron has Ho-Ho in his power, and is about to claim Fu San, when many amusing complications arise. But the play ends happily when Ying Po turns out to be the Emperor in disguise. Mrs. Ho-Ho (Isabel Walters) and Saturday, the Mayor's bodyguard (John Brown) are the comedians throughout the play. The sub-plot deals with the love of Richard Smith, an American newsreel reporter (Howard Grim) for Mei-O-Mei (Mary Mitchell), the daughter of Wenasu, the gardener (Hensford Sheets). The part of Chi-Fu the beggar, the Green-Eyes, and in reality Dr. Wo (Dick Bell), the Emperor's detective, furnished the note of mystery. The principals were well chosen and each filled his rôle very effectively. Incidentally, lots of unexpected talent was brought to light. The choruses were well trained, and the songs and costumes lent a touch of the Orient, that was charming to say the least.

The Senior Girl Reserves entertained the Hi-Y and Boys' Club, as well as the male members of the faculty at a St. Patrick's Day banquet. A snappy program was carried out and everyone had a good time.

SCENE FROM "ROSE OF TOKIO"

On April 4th, the Glee Clubs of Jefferson Grammar School and Lee High were heard in a concert in the Lee auditorium, under the direction of Miss M. Virginia Potts, who is completing her first year here. The Lee High Orchestra at this time gave its initial performance. Both Glee Club and Orchestra showed the result of good training and much practice, and a great deal of credit is due Miss Potts. The program concluded with a one-act musical playlet, "That Old Sweet-heart of Mine." Howard Grim was the dreamer, before whose vision there appears all types of modern girl, the old-fashioned girl finally being chosen, as the best loved.

The Senior Class had a "dance" on March 20, in the school auditorium. An entertaining program was carried on until the hour when dancing began. The A. M. A. orchestra furnished the music. There was a large number of dancers, and everyone enjoyed the dance, the only one given this year.

The Hi-Y Club held its Girls' Night at Mrs. Clemmer's beautiful home on the Middlebrook Road. This affair was the most successful the club has yet had.

The Senior Girl Reserve Club entertained their mothers and teachers at a banquet on Friday before Mother's Day. The girls were hesitant about bringing them together, but it was requested that no mention of school be made, and so everyone had a good time.

Many affairs are being planned, among them a Gypsy picnic, the Senior farewell of the G. R. Club. The minor things, such as weekly suppers, picnics, hikes, and such outings will long be remembered, for

"A song and a smile,
Make our living worth while."

LEE WAY

Albert E. Doran

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

For the school year 1927-1928 the athletic teams of Lee High School have been more successful in all three sports than any other teams representing the High School have been. Two Valley Championships have been won and the baseball team is on its way to a third. This, of course, speaks well for the teams, for the players, but to one who knows athletics, it is evident that the major share of credit goes to the coach, the best coach Lee High has ever had.

Coach Doran came to us from Ohio University where he was a three letter man, playing football, basketball, and baseball. In his last year on the football team he was named All-State halfback, a great honor for any man, and proving his athletic ability.

He began the football season with a green team and won the Championship of the Shenandoah Valley, with the best team Lee High has had in many years. This team showed a smoothness when playing, that only a really good coach, knowing all the fine points of the game, could develop in a new team in such a short time. The talks he gave the team before each game affected every man greatly, brought him the strength and confidence he needed, and made him resolve to fight his hardest for Lee High School and the coach.

In basketball Mr. Doran developed one of the fastest passing teams seen around here in quite a few years. It was always the same team, but with the hard work of the coach, it developed, worked together better, fought harder, and brought further glory to Lee High School and won honor to Coach Doran by winning another Valley Championship.

Then, when baseball season began Coach Doran took a team that had a poor season last year and made it into a winning combination. This year's baseball team hit harder, fielded better, had better pitching, and showed a better knowledge of the game than any other Lee team. They were always out to win, a spirit which has been apparent all the time since Coach Doran's arrival.

We are convinced that there has never been a finer man than Coach Doran. He always worked hard for Lee High. He was always considerate of his men although he made them work. His instructions were always to play clean and he was the perfect gentleman on the field. His men, although he may not know it, would do anything for him, so great is their regard for him. We who are leaving bid farewell to the best coach and finest man we've ever been associated with.

Football Resume

PRACTICE for the 1927 season opened with the arrival of the new coach, Mr. A. E. Doran of Ohio University, on September 10. First call for practice brought out about thirty-five men, and after a day or two of limbering up, hard work began. The squad worked hard for three weeks in preparation for the opening game and were in good shape.

The first game of the year was with Fishburne in Waynesboro. This year Fishburne was reputed to have its greatest team in years. From the first whistle all through the first half, the Lee team outplayed, outfought, and outgained the Cadets. It was only in the last half, when injuries had taken six of Lee's best men from the field that a fresh Cadet team could score 31 points. It was a good game and the High School deserves much credit.

For the second game, Lee High had as her opponent, the famous of many years, Lane High of Charlottesville. Against this team, who were state champions, Lee put up a lidless game and as a result were defeated 32 to 0.

On October 22, with a rearranged lineup, Coach Doran took his team to Lexington, and there they played up to form and won a hard game 13 to 6. Then, on the following Saturday, the "Fighting Leemen" as they were called, ran over Handley 12 to 0. The score does not indicate the margin of victory, however. For the first half of the game Handley put up a good fight, but they were helpless at the last. Also in the next game, that with V. S. D. B., the "Fighting Leemen" wiped out another defeat and crushed the deaf mutes 21 to 0.

On Armistic Day in Harrisonburg came the last and greatest triumph of the "Fighting Leemen." They went out to win and to play hard, and they exceeded everyone's expectations by greatly out playing the heavier team of the rival school and won easily 12 to 0.

The strong game of the season was with Martinsburg (W. Va.) High School. There the "Fighting Leemen"—out-weighted and crippled—played their opponents to a 6 to 6 tie. The Lee team held their opponents four downs on the six-inch line in the last minutes of the game to close a great and successful season.

The reason the season was the best Lee has had in many a year and the team the best Lee has had in many a year was because the men fought together and played together, thinking only of victory and of Lee High School.

LEE WAY

MARSHALL BAYLOR

TACKLE, CAPTAIN, AND CAPTAIN-ELECT

"Bill," as he is fondly called by his teammates, was an ideal captain, always in the game, fighting to the end, and never giving up. This year "Bill" was hurt in the first game with Fishburne and this handicapped his playing to a great extent, causing him to leave several games. Notwithstanding this, however, "Bill" is a great tackler and played as a great tackle should during the 1927 season. Very few gains were made over his position in the line and he was always breaking through and spoiling an intended end run. There are few High School players who can use their hands and their heads at the same time with any degree of success, but "Bill" is an expert as his opponents in this past season's games will testify.

It was "Bill's" great playing, his judgment in running his team, and his fighting spirit that won for him the gold football as the most valuable player to the team and also the captaincy of the 1928 eleven.

ROBERT LINEWEAVER

QUARTERBACK

"Bobby" is a veteran although the youngest man in the squad. This year was his third and as some things improve with age, so does "Bobby's" football playing ability. Who can ever forget the Handley game when "Bobby" ran around and over his opponents at will, gaining eighty yards for a touchdown. The defensive work of this player was remarkable. It sometimes seemed uncanny, because he was always in front of every play and when he hit a man hard, he usually went out of the game. We have heard that there are several players in this part of the state who wish they had never come in contact with "Bobby." There are other reasons why Bobby is good and one of them was his running back of kicks. In this branch of the game "Bobby" stands out, and could always be counted on to bring the ball back up the field.

"Bobby" will be back next year and Lee High is looking to him to help to gain another Shenandoah Valley Championship.

BILLY MOORE

HALFBACK

"Bill" is another of the championship 1928 eleven who will be back next year, for which we are truly thankful, because he has made a name for himself and will do a great deal more in one more year. "Bill" was awarded the medal for the hardest tackler and there are many who will vouch for his fitness for this great honor. "Bill" was the star defensive man in the backfield and his ability to break up and intercept the opposing teams passes was remarkable. Very few end runs ever succeeded around his end of the line because "Bill" would get them before they got started and often throw them for a loss.

"Bill" will be with us again next year and will do much toward making another great team for Lee High School.

BERNARD BROWN

TACKLE

This year is the last for "Bat" and Lee High will surely miss him. "Bat" is the big man of the team, big in more ways than one, and is one of the greatest football players ever to play at Lee High School.

There was no player on the squad who could fight as long and as hard as "Bat" and still be as good a player. "Bat" was always in the game, out fighting and out charging his opponent every time. There was no team, even Fishburne, who could gain over his position, and the way he played against Harrisonburg and Handley was a sight well worth seeing. Later on in the season after the Handley game, "Bat" played center and his passes were always true. His work backing up the line won him praise from everyone who saw "Bat" perform. We bid goodbye to a great tackle and a great loss to Lee High.

LEE LEWAY

FRANCIS LINEWEAVER

FULLBACK

Lee High School loses a great deal when "Fats" gains his diploma this spring, for it means that one of the mainstays of the football team for the past three years has gone, leaving a gap that will be almost impossible to fill. This year was a great one for "Fats" because he proved that he is just about the best all round football man ever to come from Lee High School. He is a triple-threat man, an accomplishment which few can attain, and is good in all three branches, which is still more unusual. "Fats" kicked on an average of 45 yards every game, which is remarkable for a high school player. His passes were always accurate and he could run the ball through any team he was up against. In addition to this, "Fats" ran the team, and backed up the line in a highly creditable manner. Lee High will miss "Fats" in years to come and will go far before finding one to take his place.

KENNETH BRADFORD

QUARTERBACK

A dash down the field, a heap of humanity, who made the tackle and who emerges from under the pile but Bradford. Fast as a deer, and able to think what the best hole would be, Joe was given one of the honored berths in the backfield, that of safety man. Though light, it was Joe who took the ball across for one of the touchdowns that defeated Harrisonburg, and when men broke through the Lee defense, it was left to Bradford as the last resort to bring him down. Now the secret is disclosed as to why no team could get a player past the entire Staunton defense. Speedy, brainy, and experienced, Joe proved to be one of Lee's best bets on the gridiron. What more could be said?

FRANK LASLEY

GUARD

Frank was another Senior who after several years work, made the team. Originally a back, he was put into the line and there proved his worth. Frank weighs less than any other lineman but he was less in weight only, because he outplayed men almost twice his size. He had the knack of breaking through the opponents line and getting the tackle regularly, and on kicks he was always down the field. Frank could be depended on to have his man out of the way for plays coming over his position, and many a would-be gain was stopped at the line by the presence of this small unassuming guard. Frank had the fight and it carried him through. He will be a great loss to the 1928 varsity.

SAM WILSON

TACKLE

Sam came out for football after the season was half over and won his letter. It is hard enough to win a monogram with a whole season's work to your credit, so this proves that Sam is a mighty good football player.

Sam had no experience before this year but he easily made up for this by his fight and hard work. Sam is a mighty fast man and nailed many a safety man in his tackles. He was poison to his opponents in the line, and the way he broke through and downed the runner before he started was wonderful to behold.

Sam was a great help in making the 1927 season a success and will be back to help bring even more fame to Lee High's football team. May he have the best of success!

LEE WAY

WALLACE HOOK

CENTER

"Hook" played his first year as a regular in 1927, and played it in a way that no one could criticise. This year was the first time he had ever played center and, with this and his performances as a basis we say he is a great center. Hook's passes were always good and made it easier for the back to get started. On the defense his work was outstanding and it was hard indeed to gain through the line when he was backing it up. Then again he developed a knack for catching the opposing team's passes quite often. Hook displayed the greatest nerve we have seen or heard of on a football field when he broke his wrist in the first play in the Handley game, and continued to play. He passed the ball back perfectly with a broken wrist for a whole game, and did faultless work on the defense. No wonder Lee won the Shenandoah Valley Championship with a man of such spirit and nerve as Hook playing. Hook will be playing again next year and will be the mainstay of the team.

HAL WILSON

GUARD AND TACKLE

"Hal" is another senior who played his first and last year in 1927. However, in that one year he made a reputation which some players gain only after years of endeavor and which some never gain. Hal is a big man and a fast one, and he used his strength and speed always to the best advantage. "Hal" was a good man in every way on both the offense and defense. He was the all round player of the squad and was good at every position. Many of Lee's gains were made by "Hal" running around the end and eluding the opponents secondary defense. It was "Hal" who saved the game at Martinsburg by intercepting a pass and running across the line for Lee's only score. "Hal" won't be back next year and it will be a great loss to the 1928 team.

WILLIAM MOFFETT

END

In his senior year, after three years of hard work and fighting, "Squat" made the team. The word "made" means more than just getting into the regular line-up. We have never seen a player who could fight harder with the odds against him than "Squat." He was in every play, getting his man on the offense and always getting in and breaking up intended end runs. Although the lightest man on the team he could tackle with a force and skill that would make many a heavier man envious. "Squat" was down under every kick, and no safety man could get away from him. He was incidentally a pass receiver of no mean ability and therefore caused many a good gain. "Squat" has the "guts" because he played a whole game with a badly injured shoulder and played a great game. Lee High will certainly miss him.

EARL COVILLE

GUARD

"Jerry," as this player is called is all that one could wish for as a guard. He was fast and could always get down under kicks in time to help nail the runner. "Jerry" was playing his first year in 1927 and playing like a veteran, because only a good football player can make a team his first year, much less play the kind of game "Jerry" did. He was always on the jump and his receiving of interference was great. "Jerry" was a tower of strength on both the offence and defence and would always be fighting and in the game although never saying much. As this is "Jerry's" last year it will be some job to find a man as good as he is to fill that gap in the line.

LEE WAY

WILLIAM THOMAS

END

"Bill" is another man who captured a place on the team the first year he tried out, and this alone gives you an idea of his ability. "Bill" is big, heavy and fast, all invaluable characteristics for the ideal end. He was remarkably sure on the receiving end of passes and thus he accounted for many a gain. When a play was going around the left side of the line "Bill" would usually have his man out of the way, this also played a part in Lee High's success. To complete the virtues of this versatile player we must mention his kicking. In the Martinsburg game his sixty-five yard kick just about saved the game. "Bill" has two more years to play and Lee High will welcome him back next year.

RUDOLPH BUMGARDNER

CENTER

"Toots," as he is fondly called by his friends on the squad was the hardest working man on the team. This is a great honor in itself, but "Toots" also could play football. Behold the combination! Every day without fail "Toots" was the first to come to practice and the last to leave, setting an example his teammates vainly tried to follow. Although his weight kept him off the first team he showed he had the ability to play by earning a monogram. "Toots" filled in at several critical moments during the season and his presence always helped. "Toots" leaves this year, but Lee High will miss him.

HOWARD GRIM

MANAGER

"H. P.," as he is fondly called by his schoolmates, might be termed the "Mainstay" of the football team. He has managed the last four football teams that Lee High has put on the field and so we believe that no team can be a success without him. "H. P." is always on the job ever ready to help the team in every way and no one could complain of his care of the team on trips.

No one on the squad can deny the strength gained from hearing "H. P.'s" little speech before the game. In every game he was fighting just as hard as the team, and was part of it. "H. P." we are sorry to see you go.

Basketball Resume

THE BASKETBALL season for 1927-28 opened very auspiciously for Lee High with a clean-cut victory over Fishersville, Augusta County Champions, by a score of 24 to 22. Three days later the "Five Leemen," as the court team of Lee High is called defeated the strong Methodist Church team in an exciting extra period game 26 to 22.

On December 21, Lee defeated the Virginia "5," a team composed of University of Virginia players, 29 to 22. This game was the most exciting and best played game so far during the season. Then, during the holidays came the annual clash with the alumni, always the hardest game to win. This year's alumni team was composed of college and preparatory school stars and was a great aggregation. They, however, had a hard time defeating the fighting high school team, but finally nosed out a 27 to 24 victory in the closing minutes of the game.

In the first game after the holidays the "Five Leemen" again defeated Fishersville, on the latter's court, by the score of 28 to 16. On January 6th the "Five Leemen" took on Bridgewater, last year's district champions, on the home floor. Although the champions put up a good fight they were unable to cope with the passing game of the Blue and White team and were defeated 31 to 26.

In the game with Lane High in Charlottesville, the "Five Leemen" met defeat for the first time 41 to 29. In this game Lee was handicapped by playing on a strange floor and having to use injured men. Notwithstanding this, they were clearly outplayed.

The next game was with Harrisonburg, Lee's most deadly rival. In this game the "Five Leemen" again hit their proper stride and ran up 47 points to their opponents 14. The whole squad took part in this game.

Coming back to the home floor after a prolonged absence the "Five Leemen" met the strong Y. M. C. A. team, composed of former high school, prep school, and college stars. Although their opponents were reputed to have the better team, the Blue and White warriors were undaunted and ran up a 47 to 24 score against the "Y" aggregation.

Again playing at home the "Five Leemen" defeated the strong Wilson Hi team from Waynesboro. Another victory was chalked up for Lee High when the final whistle blew because the score was 32 to 29.

On February 2, the "Five Leemen" played their second game with Bridgewater, on the latter's floor. The game ended 17 to 17, but in the five minute play-off the Lee team ran wild and made the final score 24 to 19.

In a return game with the Y. M. C. A. team the "Five Leemen" were victorious after a hectic struggle, 31 to 25. This was one of the best played and most exciting games of the season.

Then came the final struggle with Lane High for district championship honors and the "Five Leemen" lost. They lost, but only after having outplayed Lane from every point of view, and it was not the fault of the team representing Lee that the championship did not come to Staunton. The final score was 30 to 28.

After two days rest the "Five Leemen" again went into action and ran over, around, and through the team from Harrisonburg High School. The final score was 68 to 17. The entire squad played this game. The "Five Leemen" passed and shot perfectly, proving themselves the best combination to represent Lee High in quite a few years.

The team that played together all during the season was composed of: Stover and Payne forwards, F. Lineweaver center, and R. Lineweaver and Bradford guards.

The reserves were: Hook, Brown, Smith, and Moore, who only filled in when called on.

LEE WAY

FRANCIS LINEWEAVER

CAPTAIN AND CENTER

As the basketball team of '28 was the best in years, so was the captain and to him goes a great part of the credit for the team's successful season. "Fats" was a good all round player, shooting, dribbling and passing with equal skill. Lee High did not play a game but that the playing of "Fats" was always good. He led the team in scoring, which was quite a feat. "Fats" was an ideal captain always working and fighting for the good of the team and keeping up the spirit that was almost unbeatable. "Fats" has something to be proud of being the captain of a team winning the Valley Championship and losing only to Charlottesville. This is "Fats" last year and the basketball teams of Lee High in the future will miss him greatly.

ELWOOD STOVER

CAPTAIN-ELECT AND FORWARD

This is "Lou's" second year on the basketball team and he proves the statement that things improve with age. "Lou" is the most brilliant player Lee High has had for quite a few years but that only adds to his playing ability. There is no shot too impossible for "Lou" to try and he is remarkably consistent in making them. Who can ever forget the way "Lou" tied the score in the closing minutes of the Bridgewater game, and won it during the extra period. "Lou" finished second to Lineweaver for high scoring honors, but more than made up for this deficiency by his passing. Lee High will welcome back a hard fighter and a wonderful basketball player to lead the 1929 varsity to an even more successful season than the 1928 team enjoyed.

KENNETH BRADFORD

GUARD

Joe proved to be one of the most valuable men on one of the best basketball teams that Lee has produced in the last few years. As a guard, he was not excelled, and as a scorer in a tight pinch, he was not equalled. When an opposing forward carried the ball into Lee territory, Joe would be seen coming out with the ball, using his unique left hand dribble. When the offense slowed down, a dribble to the center of the floor a motion of arms, and Joe had sent two more points to the Lee score sheet. Will he be missed, and how?

LEE WAY

ROBERT LINEWEAVER

GUARD

This year was "Bobby's" first at the guard position, but nevertheless he was the mainstay of Lee team's defense. In every game "Bobby" was in the limelight in some way or other. It was practically impossible to get by him on the defense and he usually took the ball away from his opponent. "Bobby" was good in other ways too: he could pass and shoot, and do both of them well. Although he was the stationary guard he had plenty of opportunities to score and he usually made these good. In addition to this "Bobby's" passing aided materially every advance of the Lee team down the floor. Bobby will be back again next year to help the 1929 team have a still more successful season.

BERNARD PAYNE

FORWARD

This year was the first year that "Suski" played for Lee High but this did not put his playing below that of the others on the team. It was his playing to a great extent that caused the season of the "Five Leemen" to be such a success and bring the Valley Championship to Lee High School. Although he was the smallest man on the team he more than made up for this by his fight. He was in every game playing hard, and, although inexperienced, he showed all the earmarks of becoming a great player. "Suski's" shooting was always accurate and he was instrumental in winning several games. "Suski" will be another of the "Five Leemen" to bring further glory to Lee High school.

Baseball Resume

LARGE number of candidates answered to first call for baseball in the gymnasium. The pitchers and catchers were immediately put to work by Coach Doran and worked out for about two weeks in the gym.

Then the whole squad went out on the field and started to work fielding and hitting. Although snow and rain cut the practice period before the first game, almost in half, the team made a great deal of progress.

There are nine letter men out this year and all are showing greatly improved form. These are: F. Lineweaver, catcher; Waide, first base; Captain Bradford, second base; Long, shortstop and the two Wilson brothers Sam and Hal together with Johnny Brown in the outfield. Huff and Robey are the veteran members of the pitching staff remaining.

The new men who are showing up well are: Lineweaver, R. at third base, Mosely on first base, Cochran in the outfield and Barber, pitcher. Thomas, a third baseman is also showing up fine.

The first game was with Mt. Sidney, County Champions, and Lee won 7 to 6 behind the splendid pitching of Roby. The team hit well in this game. The second game was with Bridgewater, district champions for two years. Lee lost 7 to 6 after outplaying and outhitting their opponents. A fluke caused the loss of this game. Barber, the new lefthander, pitched one of the prettiest games ever seen around here when he allowed Bridgewater three hits.

The next game was with Harrisonburg and Lee won 7 to 9, due to the pitching of Roby and Barber, and great playing in the last innings. Lee lost the next game to Luray 10 to 8 due to poor fielding. In the last game played to date, the Lee team swamped Harrisonburg 15 to 8. The team hit and played well with Barber pitching good ball.

This year's baseball team has started more auspiciously and is playing better than any team the author can remember. There is more evidence of confidence and spirit than ever before.

May the Lee High baseball team be as successful as the other teams were!

WE, TOO, ARE STUDENTS

You would hardly think it, but we are—no cap and gown do we wear, but rather a fresh white apron. But we study—oh, so hard—to find the sort of meal our hundreds of patrons like best. We study appetites of the individuals who dine here. Each has his hobby. It's our hobby to see that each gets his hobby.

THE "WE" TEAM

ALWAYS WINS THE GAME

When the "home team" trots out on the diamond you know that Lindbergh's "we spirit" is going to help win that game. Don't forget the "we spirit" after the game, either. The home town stores, like the home town team, need your support. Don't let them down.

The Birth of Printing

*Printing, born at the dawn of the Renaissance, quickly changed the Gloom of the Middle Ages to
Light and brought Knowledge,
Freedom and Happiness to the world. We combine the traditions of the Fifteenth Century with the skill and facilities of the Present Day.*
